6. RESEARCH AND RELATED ADMINISTRATION

My research is interdisciplinary and collaborative in nature, it is original and of high quality (for the REF reading exercise in preparation to the REF 2020, I submitted 4 papers, 3 of which were internally graded as 4* and one as 3*). My research makes an important contribution to the field of environmental law and governance by bringing innovative insights from other social sciences, using a variety of primary qualitative research methods. At the same time, my research aims to have profound impacts on environmental policies and environmental perspectives of key environmental actors.

Research Grants

- 2012-2015. ESRC Future Research Leaders grant (£165,697.20). I was the PI for this project and I have managed an RA (Dr. Cardwell) for the year 2013-2014. The title of the project was: "Ecologies and Identities: a socio-legal exploration of the Marine Protected Areas network in the UK".
- 2014-2015. ESRC Impact Acceleration Account (IAA) (£ 7, 279). I was the PI for this project entitled 'Building environmental stewardship to address compliance gaps in the Sinis MPA'.
- 2014. RITMARE (1,000 euros). I was awarded this grant by the IAMC-CNR to carry out doctrinal research and interviews with stakeholders in the SINIS MPAs. This research led to the writing of an academic paper under review in Aquatic Conservation and it was the basis for the ESRC IAA.
- 2007-2010. AHRC Doctoral Studentship. Fully funded PhD. My PhD was part of a larger AHRC project funded under the AHRC Landscape and Environment Programme.

Indications of External Recognition

Appointed to editorial board of the Journal of Human Rights and the Environment.

Visiting researcher at the IAMC-CNR Institute in Oristano, Italy.

Invited as academic expert to participate to government workshops on marine issues, such as 1) the marine Science Alignment Workshop organised by the Marine Management Organisation (MMO) in Sept 2015 in London and 2) Government Office for Science workshop on strategic planning for the Future of the Seas in July 2016 in London.

Advising marine NGOs (Blue Marine Foundation, UK and the Aeolian Islands Preservation Fund, Italy) for setting up a MPAs network around the Aeolian Islands. I delivered a keynote and policy briefing on the establishment of Marine Protected Areas to the Italian Minister of the Environment in Panarea in August 2016. Currently working with Blue Marine Foundation to provide management advice (travel to Lipari in June 2017 to carry out workshops with local stakeholders).

Advising Scottish Inshore Fisheries Trust (SIFT) to provide policy recommendations for new Inshore Fisheries Scotland Bill to be discussed with Marine Scotland. I am the lead author for a policy papers on inshore fisheries management (co-authors Dr Slater from Aberdeen University and Ms Watson Crook, SIFT) and Dr Harrison (Edinburgh University)

Invited speaker at different research institutions, including University of Surrey, University of Genoa and the University of Piemonte Orientale, University of Glasgow, Plymouth University, Plymouth Marine Lab, Countryside and Community Research Institute, IAMC-CNR.

I have delivered many conference papers in discipline specific and interdisciplinary fora, including Society of Legal Scholars Conference (both in 2013 and 2015), Global Conference of the International Association for the Study of the Commons (both in 2008 and in 2013), International Conference of the Centre for Maritime Studies (MARE), Amsterdam (both in 2013 and 2015), Conference on Law for Socio-Ecological Resilience held at Stockholm Resilience Centre (2010).

7. TEACHING

- Co-ordinator and principal lecturer of a number of UG and PG environmental law modules.
- Teaching on a variety of other core and optional units in the Law School (EU Law, Socio-Legal units, Introduction to Law, Final Year Research Project).

- Programme Director of both the MRes in Environment, Energy and Resilience (EER) and the PhD programme in EER.
- PhD supervision (total number of students is 6): I am the lead supervisor of 4 PhD students, the co-supervisor of 1 and have supervised two students to completion.

8. MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION

PGR Director

August 2017-August 2018: From August Director of Law PhD students.

Deputy Head of Research

August 2015-July 2017: Deputy Head of Research of the Law School so I am working closely with the Head of Research (Prof. Burnside) to shape and strengthen research at the University of Bristol Law School, already one of the top law schools in the country.

ESRC Environment, Energy and Resilience pathway academic lead

I have been the pathway lead of the EER pathway since 2013 (from September 2017 the name will change from EER to Sustainable Futures). This role includes, inter alia, the ability to forge cross-institutional collaboration and select the best doctoral candidates.

Organiser of environmental interdisciplinary Workshops/Symposia/Conferences

I have organised a very successful two-day Symposium on Marine Governance and Protected Areas at the University of Bristol in Sept 2015.

With colleagues at the University of Bristol, I have led and co-organised a number of environmental interdisciplinary workshops/events sponsored by Cabot. Examples include:

- 1) With Dr Bridle (Biology), Dr Foster (Earth Sciences), Dr Hendy (Earth Sciences) and Dr T Davies-Barnard (Geography), I organised an autumn-long programme of workshops on Biodiversity in 2014.
- 2) With Prof Osborne (SPAIS) and Philippa Bayley (Cabot), I organised 4 workshops on the “Elements of the Anthropocene”. The workshops run in the Autumn of 2013.
- 3) I was part of the organising committee for the international conference ‘Society in the Anthropocene’ held at Bristol, June 2013 (lead organisers were Prof. Larner, Prof. Osborne and the Cabot Institute)
- 4) With Prof Osborne and Dr. Butt (both SPAIS) a 1 day social sciences workshop on “Risk, Regulation and Justice: Environmental Politics and the Social Sciences” in 2012.

At the University of Newcastle, I organised with the other members of the AHRC Contested Common Land team 4 workshops with research participants and a final symposium.
